Background

Educator of all levels in all subjects private, public, and homeschool. I have taught for the past 7 years at PTAA (been at all campuses) and love being a Dyslexia Reading Interventionist; don't want to teach anything else. I have a Speech Pathology degree from TWU. My love is helping students to learn to read fluently. I am trained in both Orton-Gillingham and MTA dyslexia intervention curriculums and would love to learn another.
